Chips From The Scout Log First Raymond Troop

Previous Activities

Perhaps the most interesting news this week concerns the Boy Scout and Cub Scouts Ice Stampede held in the Lethbridge Arena recently. The following scouts from our troop took part in the chuck-wagon race: Gordon Evans, Arthur Hudson, Stanley Greep, and Donald Grant (horses); Max Holt, Rodney Kiddie, Gordon Tyche, and Gerry Dahl (outriders); and Carl Richardson, (driver). David Still and Angelo Viola carried the colors in the opening ceremonies. Jimmy Walker also went in the first night as an extra.

Those who have never seen an Ice Stampede might say, "Just how can you have a stampede on skates?" So here is a brief explanation: The chuck wagon races were the main part of the show. Each wagon team consists of nine boys, four horses, four outriders and one driver. The chuck-wagons are long box-like sleighs with a seat in front and a canvas-covered back. The horses are harnessed to the tongue in front; one outrider holds on to rope attached to the back of the wagon while the other three riders carry two poles and a tin stove which must be thrown into the wagon as soon as the whistle goes to start the race. The course consists of a figure 8 across the rink around two barrels and then two rounds of the rink (one round for Wolf Cubs). Three teams compete at once and sometimes there was a real scramble as stoves and sticks fly out barrels get knocked over and horses fall down. Points are lost for such occurrences.

Our boys took fifth place, running the race in 55½ seconds the first night and in 58 seconds the second night. The winning team was from the 12th Calgary Troop, their time was 47 seconds. The younger Wolf Cub races were really good entertainment too.

Another interesting event was the wild cow milking contest. The cows were of the show variety with a boy under each end. The show also included tumbling by the YMCA and the Scouts, rope-climbing, dance demonstrations, clowns who were really Boy Scouts, and the property men and a really funny game of hockey called "broom ball" between the Lethbridge Maple Leafs and the Lions Club. The game is played with brooms and a rugby ball. The Leafs scored a goal to end the game by getting the ball into a net about a foot high. The Lions shot at a regulation sized net.

We'd like to thank the following people for helping with transportation: Jimmy Anderson, Paul Evans, Bishop Hicken and Annie Larsen.

The following boys have earned proficiency badge lately:

Fireman's Badge - Arthur Hudson, Angelo Viola, David Still, Carl Richardson, Stanley Greep and Rodney Kiddie.

Leather Workers Badge - Arthur Hudson, Angelo Viola, Gilbert Judd and Jerry Dahl.

Musicians Badge - Jimmy Walker.

Book Binders Badge - Angelo Viola.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jones attended a farewell party in Lethbridge last week honoring Mr. and Mrs. Alex Porteous who are moving to Salt Lake. Mrs. Porteous is the former Maxine Watson.

We are very sorry that the name of Mrs. Julia Tolstrup was omitted from the list of those assisting in the kitchen at the Fathers and Sons Banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellys Piepgrass had as their guests this week Ellys' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Wright of Warner.

Art Exhibit Sponsored By Culture Society

Monday afternoon and evening about seventy-five people called at the Town Hall to view Mrs. Jessie Ursenbach's beautiful paintings on display. The majority of these paintings were of flowers in bright and colorful hues. There were also a few scenes, each with an interesting story behind it.

During the afternoon Gerry Gibb and his entire art class paid a visit to the display.

This Exhibit was sponsored by the Canadian Culture Society with Mrs. Wm. Jensen acting as hostess.

A lovely lunch was served during the afternoon with Mrs. Frank Ball presiding at the tea table. Betty Evans, Udine Duncombe, Anne Turner and Leola Meeks relieved at the punch table. Mrs. Powelson and Mrs. Wolf were in charge of the refreshments.

At seven o'clock Mrs. Ursenbach gave a very interesting talk on the topic "What Is Art" and related subjects.

Gerry Finch is presently home visiting his family Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Finch. Gerry is on leave in the Air Force stationed at Trenton.

"Men of Galilee" Presented By Stake MIA

The Stake MIA carried on its usual custom of presenting a high quality drama this year. The current drama, "Men of Galilee" was directed by Elodia Christensen and was presented in three acts, each of which contained three scenes.

The story and even the wonderful costumes and scenes were somewhat distracted from by the intervals that came between the scenes, but in most cases suitable music was played to offset this.

The program was presented in Stirling, Magrath and on two occasions at the Stake House and at all performances appreciative crowds gathered to see this play that tells the story of the life of Christ and that of some of his followers at the time of his Crucifixion.

The scenery and the costumes were real works of art and much credit is due Glen Adamson, who designed and painted the scenery and to Elodia Christensen and Elsie Perrett who designed and made the costumes.

To pick the stars of the play would be folly as all in the cast performed their parts with sincerity and understanding but it would also be folly not to mention Dean Rolfsen, Shirley King and Franklin Smith who were superb.

The cast included: John Smith, Dean Rolfsen, Charles Perrett, Farrel Nelson, Arlidge Hill, Franklin Smith, Lloyd Tanner, Joe Strong, Eddie Kiddie, Grant Paxman, Laura Watson, Henry Perrett, Lyman Hardy, Shirley King, Nora Stone, Kay Salmon, Lyman Anderson, Colleen Housley, Arlidge Hill, Gordon Jacobs, Mildred Hardy, James Heninger, Reed Zemp, Bernice Dahl, Grant Erickson, Dorothy Dawley and Anita McBride.

Dean Michelson and Joe Spackman Doug Christensen and Bob Perrett were assistants to the Stage Manager and Designer; Farrel Oler was in charge of Lighting and Marie Zemp and Doris Erickson were in charge of Make Up.

Special Soloists between the scenes were Lloyd Tanner, Farrel Nelson, Nora Stone, Herb Bishop, Laura Watson and Co.

Red Cross Campaign To Start March 10th

The Raymond Branch of the Canadian Red Cross will try again this year to top their quota which has been set at $1600. Last year the local branch topped this by $100 and it is sincerely hoped that the people of this district will contribute generously to carry on the wonderful work of the Red Cross. It has been announced that if the national quota is not reached this year some of the services of the Red Cross will have to be dropped.

The campaign will begin on March 10th. Give Generously.

AN OPEN LETTER

Cardston, Alberta,

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

A number of damaging statements have been made either intentionally or in plain ignorance by persons known to me in the Town of Raymond. Unless these individuals can back up their statements intelligently, they are hereby advised to refrain from such talk or take the consequences in a court of law. I'm sure that all have heard, "Thou shalt not bear false witness."

As most of these statements are of a religious nature I hope that these individuals are prepared to defend the TRUTH.

Yours truly,

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snow entertained a few friends at their home after Church. Mr. and Mrs. Ira McBride, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mendenhall, Mrs. Gilchrist, and Mrs. Lavern Anderson spent a very enjoyable evening with their hosts visiting.

A very tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Snow.

Ladies 'Spiel A Big Success

Sixteen rinks made up of one from Lethbridge, two from Cardston, one from Magrath, two from Warner and the remainder from Raymond, entered the Raymond Ladies' Bonspiel last weekend. It was started off at eight o'clock Friday morning with Mayor Jensen throwing the first rock and President Eva Ralph wielding the broom.

By four o'clock the 64 ladies were all ready for the delicious banquet served in the Legion Hall with the Ladies Auxiliary catering. The tables were appropriately decorated with tapers and curling rocks. After the dinner Community Singing was lead by Geneva Erickson, followed by a Reading by Nina Jones and a comic song about curling by a Ladies chorus. Although the Bonspiel had another day to go, prizes were presented to several ladies: Mrs. Spencer of Cardston for being the oldest curler present; the Gladys King rink for the best dressed; H. Evans rink for having the biggest end; and the Vera Heninger rink for knocking out first; Edith Heninger, Audrey Zwak and Gen Erickson for holding the lucky numbers and the Holmes twins—for being twins.

In the semi finals Saturday afternoon H. Evans of Warner played the Strong rink; Betty Evans played Walker of Cardston; Beatrice Pack played Spencer of Cardston; Edith Smith played Glenn of Warner and Jean Harker of Magrath played the Gladys King rink.

In the First Event in the Final H. Evans of Warner beat Strong; Second Event, Betty Evans beat Spencer; Third Event, Jean Harker beat the Smith rink.

Prizes were given to those teams placing first, second and third in each of the Three Events an included: Table Lamps, Cardigan Sweaters, Breakfast dishes and Silver Bon Bon dishes; Hot pads, Boudoir Lamps, Pictures, pillow cases and Chinese wall lamps; Scatter rugs, pyrex bowls and wall plaques. There prizes were donated by various businesses in Raymond and Lethbridge.

Much credit goes to Connie Grant, Nina Jones and Betty Evans who made up the Bonspiel Committee for the success of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piepgrass have returned from Salt Lake where they attended the wedding of Juanita Wall daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wall, to Keith Woodfield. A reception was held in Ogden after the ceremony with guests coming from Provo, Orem, Salt Lake, Bountiful, New York, Canada, Salem, Ore., and Idaho.

While in the States Mr. and Mrs. Piepgrass attended a Family Reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wall in Holladay, Utah. Mrs. Emily Rolfsen, a former Raymondite who now lives in Salt Lake City, and Mr. and Mrs. George (Ethel) Johnson were also present.

First and Fourth Wards Crown Queens

The Opera House was the gayly decorated setting for the First and Fourth Ward Green and Gold Ball Saturday night when six lovely Queens were crowned for the year 1952. A lacy green and gold network was up above and the color theme was carried out over the windows.

After an hour or so of dancing by the large crowd the floor was cleared for the floor show put on by the First Ward Gleaners, who wore pretty pastel gowns, and M Men. Those participating were: Doug Evans, Arline Taylor, Norma Still, Rex Nielson, Jean Holmes, Randol Meeks, Joan Holmes, Grant Litchfield, Ida Longbottom, Ken Hicken, Marie Nalder, Donny Atwood, Jean Smith, Calvin Pack, Ginger Evans, Delynn Hirsche, Dorothy Nelson, Bill Cooper, Rhea Jensen, Lane Atwood, Floy Kiddie, Danny Atwood, Berna Cook, Jack Hicken, Pat Mitchell and Holgar Tyche.

When the curtain to the stage was opened Barbara Fairbanks, Ladene McBride and Venita Vance of the Fourth Ward and Jean and Joan Holmes and Pat Mitchell of the First Ward were seated on grass covered steps leading to a fountain of water, surrounded by brightly hued flowers.

Bishop Snow and Bishop Hicken placed a beautiful crown on the heads of the six girls who had worked so diligently to fulfill the requirements for this honor. The Queens' Consort Bill Fairbanks, Dean Cooper, Gerald Christensen, Doug Evans, Danny Atwood and Delynn Hirsche then joined them on the stage and presented his partner with a ring engraved "Queen of the Gold and Green Ball".

The Fourth Ward Gleaners (also in pretty pastel gowns) and M Men then came on the floor and sat down at little round garden tables and sang Tea For Two, followed by a dance to the same music. At the conclusion of their floor show each couple bowed to the Queens before leaving the floor, after which the Queens and Consorts danced the Queens' Waltz.

The Fourth dancers were Evelyn Heggie, Mary Snow, Connie Mehew, Norma Meldrum, Nadene Meldrum, Jazelle Meeks, Yvonne Meeks, Joy Litchfield, Shariene Somerfeldt, Dawn Mendenhall, Margaret Stone, Barbara Wing, Lynn Stone, Ronnie Melchin, Duane Atwood, Duane Frazer, Alan Tolstrup, Gary Christensen, Robert Gibb, Dean Cooper, Douglas Stone, Scott Vance, Deloy Meldrum, Gordon Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stone, who directed the Fourth Ward dance wish thank Grant Erickson and the orchestra for their help in making the floor show so successful.

Our thanks go to Lloyd Rasmussen of Rosemary for his interesting story of the formation of the new "Montey Ward". We hope our readers find the following story as enjoyable as we did. (This letter was written last fall.)

In the fall of 1945 a number of men from Lethbridge, Raymond, Magrath and Welling each put up a sum of money to purchase 11½ sections of grass land from Williams Bros. of Duchess, Alberta. Among these men were Alfred J. Ririe, Jesse Wilde, Will Wilde, Frank Taylor, Asael Palmer, Will Russel, Frances Russel, John H. Johansen. I believe that Bishop C. L. Norton of the Rosemary Ward did most in promoting this scheme as he took the idea to these other men and carried out most of the legal business of purchasing it. The idea was not to make money for these men but to provide an opportunity for returning servicemen and others who may be interested to buy a farm at a price within their reach.

This land had been surveyed for irrigation and most of the head ditches built by the C.P.R. in about 1914, but had been used for grazing since that time. It probably would be the same today had it not been for this plan which they originally called the North Rosemary Settlement Project.

The three sections on the south of this tract were sold to the Rosemary ward and is used as a welfare farm. Nearly one section being farmed and the other two as pasture. Last year the ward purchased 20 purebred Hereford heifers, so they have a pretty well rounded out farm.

The rest of the land, 34 quarter sections, has been sold to various individuals and some quarters have changed hands several times. 39 of these quarters are now being farmed, leaving only four unbroken and used for pasture.

Among the men who have owned land here, but have sold out are Harold Karren, George Spencer, John A., and John V. Johansen and Miles Spencer who farmed here for two years.

Just as an interesting sidelight, some of the people in this vicinity said this land was no good, and for this reason hadn't been farmed, although there was good farms both south and north of it. To contradict this statement I need only to mention that Austin Bennett is now in the process of harvesting a crop of oats that are yielding near the 100 bushel per acre mark, in spite of some of it laying flat on the ground.

Since we are on the average about 11 miles from Rosemary it was not always easy to attend Sunday School and Church and M.I.A., especially in the winter, so last winter we approached the Bishop, Leonard J. Shields, about having some organization so that meetings could be held out here. On Jan. 21, 1951, we were officially organized into a branch Sunday School, being affiliated with the Rosemary Sunday School. Reece B. Gibb was the superintendent with Russel Payne, formerly of Welling and Mountain View as assistant.

On September 23, 1951, President Urnsbach of the Lethbridge Stake met with us in the home of Brother and Sister Payne (Eunice Bennett) and organized us into a dependent branch of the Rosemary Ward. This gave us authority to hold Priesthood meeting, Sacrament meeting, M.I.A. and Relief Society. Reece B. Gibb was made Presiding Elder, Austin Bennett Branch Clerk, Randall Payne, Sunday School superintendent, Sister Wanda McLean (Logan used to live in Raymond and Welling) as Relief Society president and Mildred Rasmussen as secretary of Relief Society. The organization was officially named the Montey Branch.

Quite often the first baby born in a town or place is given the name of the place. In this case our first son, Montey, was the first child born (actually) in the district, before it had a name, so instead of naming the child for the place, the place was named for the child. Montey was born here at home last March the 17th at around 3 in the morning. It was absolutely impossible to get anywhere just then as you may recall we were in the middle of the worst blizzard in—how many years? I did find my way to Gibbs on horseback and let the horse bring us back home, by us I mean Alda Gibb who stayed until the storm subsided and did all the necessary things that needed doing for a new born baby and the rest of the children.

After getting home with A'da Gibb and finding things still all right I found my way somehow to McLeans and asked Don if he would ride to Ockey's for Vera Ockey, who was a little more experienced in such cases. Don left our house at around 1 a.m. and got to Ockey's about 2 miles away alright. He and Sister Ockey left her place at about 3 o'clock and came fine until they turned off the road into our field where the drifts were very high and pretty hard for a horse to get through. Then Don decided to get off and lead the horse through these drifts but they soon ran into a fence, then tried to follow their tracks back to the gate but were unable to do so, and wandered around there until it began to get daylight. I was just going to go out to see if I could locate them when they came in at 6 a.m. They had been wandering around in a ten acre hay field for 3 hours. Vera had a strip of her chin frozen but they were otherwise alright. The baby, a 7 and a ½ pound boy, was born about 10 minutes past three and both he and his mother were fine.

Now you see how this boy, Montey, caused quite a commotion out here so some one (not I) suggested that our branch be named for him.

Needless to say, Mildred and I are indeed grateful to our neighbors who would risk their lives in leaving the comfort and safety of their homes on a night such as that was to help a neighbor in a time of need.

Now to mention a few names of those who live or own land in the district and who are, or will be members of the Montey Branch, who may be known in Magrath and district.

Reece Gibb and Alda, Austin and Ruth Bennett, Lynn Bennett and Marion (at present both teaching school at Patricia), Ben and Marge Rasmussen (will be moving onto their farm from Rosemary in the spring); Johnny and Fontella Boehme (will likely be here in the spring), Randal and Eunice Bennett Payne, Logan and Wanda McLean, Leo Vance (once of Raymond and Welling, intends to bring a bride back to the farm in the spring), Stan Jones and family (formerly of Olds and Raymond, Lyle Lybbert and family (used to live in Raymond), and myself and Mildred. I almost forgot Claude and Thora Adamson (formerly of Stirling and Raymond).

There will only be four families this winter in the branch as several are leaving for other work but we expect to have at least 12 families in the spring. The children are vanned to Rosemary to school.
